Honorable E. Thomas Coleman

Dear Tom:

As the 95th Congress begins, I know that you will be very busy in getting settled into your new office. However, I would like to put in an early bid to invite you, along with a number of your colleagues, to visit our Headquarters Building and to meet senior intelligence officials in the interest of better acquainting you with the role of the Intelligence Community in keeping the Executive and Legislative bodies properly informed.

Our Office of Legislative Counsel will be in touch with your office soon to determine what arrangements can be made.

Sincerely,

/s/ George Bush
